Dear [Redacted]

Thank you for sending the material enclosed with your letter of 29 October. I have passed copies of the items to our National Intelligence Officer for East Asia and to [Redacted]. Both gentlemen expressed an interest in seeing you and suggested a meeting here at headquarters at 2:30 p.m. on 28 January. A few other analysts with interests in Southeast Asia may also be present.

I hope that these arrangements are acceptable to you. Unless we hear from you to the contrary, we shall expect to see you in the reception area of Headquarters Building on 28 January. Should you arrive early on that date, please call me (ask the receptionist for my number as it is about to be changed) and I shall come down to meet you and assist you in the painless but required processing of visitors entering our building.

Sincerely,

[Redacted]
